

Success stories don't just happen.
They are made.

Your first step on a management career path:

The Junior Managers Program (Management Trainee), Vietnam Sales & Marketing

For our Marketing & Sales area, we are looking for outstanding graduates with a passion for sales and marketing strategies and a talent for the worldwide market. If you're already familiar with topics such as brand management, sales controlling and service, plus you have what it takes to lead, then welcome: Together, we'll lay the foundations for your future as a manager at Bosch in 18 to 24 months.

The Junior Managers Program at a glance:

- Can be commenced at any time
- Unlimited employment contract
- Individual choice of program components
- Functional focus according to personal interests/abilities
- Total duration: 18 to 24 months
- Four to six assignments in diverse functions, divisions and locations – including one in a different country, as an integral part of the Junior Managers Program
- Integrative work concept: project assignments combined with day-to-day business
- Advice and support from members of senior management
- Agreement on goals prior to assignments, feedback on their conclusion
- Personal budget for further individual training
- Wealth of opportunities for networking with other participants of the Junior Managers Program, specialists and executives
- Varied program of cultural and leisure activities
- Preparation for leadership tasks
- Mentor from Top Management

Are you our next Junior Manager?

- Vietnamese citizenship
- Preferably Master Degree or higher with above average GPA (business administration, marketing, business & engineering or similar)
- An entrepreneurial mindset and leadership potential
- Innovative strength, creativity and willingness to learn
- A sense of responsibility and the ability to work independently
- Initiative and a high level of commitment
- Extracurricular activities
- Team spirit and social skills
- International experience during studies or working and Global Mindset

If you have what it takes, send us your application with Subject: "S&M-JMP" at imp.recruitment.hcp@vn.bosch.com